

ReACT Tool Kit

Mean Sea Level (MSL) is the average surface height of the ocean, about halfway between low and high tide. Land elevation is measured as a height above MSL.

Graphic and Explanation developed by Dr. Keren Bolter